

LOUISVILLE has an old Sunday law prohibiting labor of any kind on that day. It has not been enforced for many years. Last Sunday, however, acting under the orders of the Mayor, the police proceeded to revive and give effect to the long dormant enactment.

Between 12 and 2 o'clock in the morning all places found open were entered, including newspaper offices, and the saloons. All persons found at work were taken down for prosecution to the grand jury. The list included all printers, compositors, pressmen, newsboys, saloon keepers, milkmen, marketmen, hackmen and others. Later in the day the churches were visited, and several organisers, janitors, sextons and bell ringers were arrested. All out-door amusements, where any business of whatever character was conducted, was prohibited. Under the operation of the law no work or business can be done except such as is absolutely necessary. Quite a number of saloons were kept open, nevertheless, and a number of test cases were made up. The saloon-keepers have contributed a fund for the purpose of resisting the law, and a lively fight in the courts is probable. Notwithstanding the defiance of the law by the saloon keepers and the wicked newspaper men, according to all accounts last Sunday was the quietest passed in Louisville for many years.

Cuticura
IF MEDIES
Have achieved the most noted success of any medicine of modern times.
Messrs. Weeks & Potter have never doubted the specific properties of Cuticura, Cuticura Resolvent, and Cuticura Soap, for the speedy, permanent, and economical cure of Humors of the Blood, skin and scalp. They are, however, astonished at their universal success; for it was to be expected that in the hands of some one could fall so easily and so completely upon the use of them.
They are enabled to say without fear of contradiction that no remedies ever achieved in the short space of one year the number of wonderful cures performed by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SALT RHUM.
Covering the Body for Ten Years.
Permanently Cured.
Law Office of CHAS. HOGGTON.
11 Congress Street, Boston, Feb. 2, 1880.
Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER, Gentlemen:—I feel it a duty to inform you and through you all who are interested in the fact, that a most disagreeable and obstinate case Salt Rheum of the face, which has been under my personal observation from about ten (10) years, and the greater portion of the patient's life, and time with its peculiar irritations, itching, and to wit: the face, neck, and scalp, and to the hands, has been cured by your Cuticura Soap, and Cuticura Resolvent, leaving a clear and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of CUTICURA.

Liver Complaint.
And Dyspepsia Treated by the Resolvent, Gains 12 pounds on one bottle.
GENTLEMEN:—I have suffered for years with Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, with running sores on the side of my neck, for ten years. Doctors did me no good. I tried various remedies, but it did me no good. Everything I ate or drank, I got reduced from 150 to 110 pounds. I was unable to do any work, and I was in a state of great distress. I tried your Cuticura Soap, and Cuticura Resolvent, and in a few days I gained five and one-half pounds. It is now the business, and I am going to try it again.
Yours truly,

Jane Jones, an unruly colored woman, who has served a time or two at the work-house, and who is notorious for her bad character, was creating disturbance on Wilmington street last night about 8 o'clock, when Chief of Police Lee arrested her and in carrying her to the guard-house she became unmanageable and began to brandish a razor in the air, making several passes at Capt. Lee, one of which took effect in his breast but fortunately proved not to be serious. She was safely lodged in jail to await the course of the law.

We find that we were premature in our announcement of an entertainment at Peace Institute on next Friday. The teacher in charge of the Primary and Kindergarten department, so we are informed, is getting up a Cantata, in which her pupils take part, but whether it will come off as yet is somewhat uncertain. We are requested to correct our notice of yesterday by so stating and furthermore, that it will in no way be a public entertainment, but strictly private.

My Doctors. It is a fact that many of the "secular" doctors who will not recommend Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure for the diseases which so effectively remove, yet use it "on the sly" in their practice. They must soon adopt it openly as the standard remedy.

Robert P. Smith, Chilesburg, Va., writes: "As for the Pills I don't know how I could do without them. I have had the Liver disease over twenty years, and I can say I got your pills. They have entirely cured me. I can now sleep and eat as I used to. They have saved me and sent me to me for them. They always speak in the highest terms of them."

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate those blessings. Here is an article which works perfectly, and which is harmless to the child, which affords the infant a perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button."

And during the process of teaching, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teaching stage, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
